UNIVERSITY SPEAKERS SERIES

OCTOBER 2000 KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Peter Schickele, composer, musician, author, and satirist will be on the Indiana State University campus October 18 and 19. Dr. Schickele is internationally recognized as one of the most versatile artists in the field of music. His works, now well in excess of 100 for symphony orchestras, choral groups, chamber ensembles, voice, movies, and television, have given him “a leading role in the ever-more prominent school of American composers who unselfconsciously blend all levels of American music” (John Rockwell, The New York Times). Among his ongoing projects is a weekly, syndicated radio program, Schickele Mix, which has been heard nationwide over Public Radio International since 1992 and which won ASCAP’s prestigious Deems Taylor Award. In his well known other role as perpetrator of the oeuvre of the now classic P.D.Q. Bach, Schickele is acknowledged as one of the great satirists of our time. Albums of the fabled musical genius’s work have earned four consecutive Grammy awards for Best Comedy Album. Although on an “indefinite sabbatical” from touring with the works of P.D.Q. Bach, Schickele continues to present both old and new discoveries of his music at Carnegie Hall each December.
