AN 2006-2007

SPECIAL NOTICES

MATH AREA FOR SCIENCE EDUCATION LICENSURE

The Indiana Standards Board has ruled that effective June 30, 2006, Rules 2002 (not 2006 as previously published) licensure for Science Education will not include math as a content area. All math licensure will be granted only through degree programs in mathematics. Effective June 30, 2006, students should be advised that they should not pursue the current Science Education curriculum with a major or minor area in Mathematics if they are seeking Science Education licensure in Indiana under Rules 2002.

Effective June 30, 2006, mathematics is not recognized by the Indiana Professional Standard Board for licensure in Science Education under Rules 2002. Students pursuing a Rules 2002 license in Science Education should see their advisor if they have questions about their degree plan.
