New Student Orientation sessions for students who are transferring to Indiana State University are offered throughout the year.

To register for an orientation session, visit www.indstate.edu/orientation and follow the links for transfer students.

Before arriving to your orientation session, there are many items you can accomplish beforehand to make your transition as seamless as possible. Be sure to check your Sycamore Email account for confirmation of your orientation session once you are registered. This is the official communication method of the University. Please note the checklist on the back and the insert explaining how to activate your Sycamore Login.

Check the website for the latest details, including directions to campus and available parking.

Checklist For Entering Transfer Students

Complete these steps before attending your orientation session.

- Step 1. Activate your MyISU portal account.
  To activate your Sycamore login on the MyISU Portal:
  - Visit https://isuportal.indstate.edu
  - Click activate your sycamore login

  Once your portal is activated, please make note of your username and password, you will use this information to reserve your place at New Student Orientation, as well as to access your Sycamore email account.

- Step 2. Sign up for New Student Orientation
  For dates and program details regarding New Student Orientation, visit www.indstate.edu/orientation. You will need your username and password for the MyISU Portal before registering for orientation (see Step 1).

- Step 3. Make an appointment with your academic advisor.
  Academic advising appointments must be scheduled separate from New Student Orientation. To schedule an appointment please contact your academic advisor or academic department which can be found in your MyISU Portal. If you do not have an academic advisor listed, contact your academic department which is listed at http://indstate.edu/orientation/transfer/acadadvisingapp.htm.

- Step 4. Access and read your credit transfer report (MySAM).
  Once admitted to the University, you may access your credit transfer report (MySAM) through the MyISU Portal. This report details all of your transfer hours accepted by the University as well as coursework you must complete to finish your degree at Indiana State University. For more information, visit www.indstate.edu/transfer/report.htm.

- Step 5. What to bring to orientation.
  - Your state ID (i.e. Indiana Drivers License)
  - Social Security Card
  - Transcripts showing courses in progress if currently taking classes
  - Comfortable shoes (we will be doing some walking)

- Step 6. Apply for Financial Aid.
  If you have not already done so, apply for federal and state financial aid by completing the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) at www.fafsa.ed.gov.

  The federal school code for Indiana State University is 001807.

- Step 7. Sign up for housing.
  Visit Residential Life for information on:
  - Residence halls and housing options
  - Meal plans
  - On-line housing contract (and instructions)

  Go to Residential Life now at www.indstate.edu/reslife

- Step 8. Meet state immunization requirements.
  As a new student, you are required by the State of Indiana Department of Health to complete and return health and immunization documents prior to attending New Student Orientation. You can access required forms at www.indstate.edu/registrar/immune/index.php.

  Copies can be mailed or faxed in advance to:
  - Office of Registration and Records, Parsons Hall, Room 009, Terre Haute, IN 47809
  - 812-237-8039 (fax)

- Step 9. Submit Final Materials.
  Submit final materials to the Office of Admissions. Don’t forget to include (if applicable):
  - Final college transcripts (most recent semester completed or dual credit course work)

  Application Fee: If you have not already paid the application fee, log back into your online admission application to pay the $25.00 (nonrefundable) fee.
